

Dear Friends and Family, jewillis@cwpanama.net October 22, 2022

“Were you my Mommy’s teacher?” “Well, I am not sure, who is your Mommy?” “Indira.”

Bells and lights!! “Yes! I was your Mommy’s music teacher.” The smile on the little girl’s face was a vivid illustration of what went on in my heart. I then asked about her Grandfather Osvaldo and Uncle Osvaldo, Jr. whom I also taught. Talk about your life flashing before your eyes? That is an example.

There was rejoicing in Heaven the first week of October when two more saved people entered Heaven’s Gates. One, a Youthful school teacher who succumbed to cancer and the local canteen owner for whom Jim prayed, laying his hands on the wall of the building and praying in the dark of night. After 10 p.m., Jim walked Las Lomas in the late 70’s and early 80’s stopping to pray in front of the homes of the church members and prospects. The school teacher never came to church even though the three sons she shared with her husband are faithful, the eldest, an assistant to the Pastor, SS teacher and you name it, an Obed-Edom of I Chronicles. Whatever the job, Abel is your man.

The canteen owner was a “secret disciple”. He was saved five years before he died. His wife was saved about the same time. Their profession was a hindrance to them, but they had no other.

My six classes in the institute are moving toward the end of the year in December. Satan has fought hard to discourage us by causing our professors to miss classes. Thankfully, the students have “been there” in spite of the circumstances. Some pastors who help us are just spread too thin. But there is a good spirit among the students.

My health is good, I need dental work as the “grinders are few”, Ecc.12. My hearing is low, also Ecc. 12. The flowering almond is referring to white hair, I am told. But, I don’t tint it; why try to look younger? There is a natural respect for old ladies that is quite enjoyable! Meanwhile, I am able to function and witness for the Lord. Thank you for continued prayers and financial support. Love, Elaine
